

DORDT UNIVERSITY

Transfer Guide for University of Northwestern - St. Paul

Dordt University has designated the following courses from University of Northwestern - St. Paul to meet CORE (general education) requirements effective for students entering Fall 2026.

CONTEXTUAL INTER-DISCIPLINARY

CHOOSE ONE FROM EACH CATEGORY

Health, Sport, and the Body (CORE 130)

PHE1066: Fitness and Health for Life

Responding to Literature (CORE 180)

LIT1100: Introduction to Literature

Quantitative Reasoning (MATH/STAT 120 or higher)

MAT1126: Pre-Calculus

MAT2055: Statistics

MAT2121: Calculus and Analytic Geometry I

Natural Science (*non-science majors) (CORE 211-229)

CHE1006: Concepts of Chemistry & Lab

SCI1010: Environmental Science & Lab

SCI2108: Concepts of Astronomy with Lab

Persons in Community (CORE 250-259)

PSY2108: Lifespan Psychology

Justice and Stewardship (CORE 260-269)

POS2005: U.S. National Government

SOC1035: Introduction to Sociology

Cross-cultural (CORE 270-289)

ICS2045: Cultural Anthropology

ICS3015: Race & Ethnicity in America

LIT2118: Multi-ethnic American Literature

*Those majoring in the sciences should contact Dordt University about other science courses that may be appropriate for their major.

PRE-DISCIPLINARY FOUNDATIONAL

CHOOSE ONE FROM EACH CATEGORY

Mathematics Competency

MAT1005: Math for the Liberal Arts

English Competency:

ENG1105: Composition

Communication Competency:

COM1075: Public Speaking

Foreign Language Competency:

ACL2002: Elementary Greek II

ACL2022: Classical Latin II

CHIN1002: Beginning Chinese II

SPAN1002: Beginning Spanish II

Pre-Disciplinary requirements may be met in a variety of ways depending on a student's academic profile. Please contact the Registrar's Office or see Dordt Catalog for more information.