DORDT UNIVERSITY JOURNALISM SCHOLARSHIPS

Journalism scholarships are available for students who contributed to the publication of their high school newspaper or other writing projects. Recipients need not be communication majors; however, they will be asked to enroll in the Introduction to Journalism course during their first year at Dordt University. An application form and a recommendation from a person who can attest to the applicant's writing abilities are required. Recipients are expected to participate in the publication of the Dordt University Diamond, a biweekly student newspaper. These scholarships are renewable for an additional three consecutive years provided the recipient maintains a 2.00 cumulative GPA and is an active staff member of the Dordt University Diamond, as determined by the newspaper's faculty advisors.

Application Procedure:

1. Complete this application form.
2. Complete the Office of Admissions application process and be accepted for admission to Dordt University.
3. Submit three pieces of writing that represent your work and ability.
4. Submit a recommendation statement from a person who can attest to your writing abilities and potential.
5. Application materials must be postmarked by December 1 and sent to one of the following addresses:
