

DORDT MEDIA NETWORK

Video Production Scholarships

Video Production scholarships of $1,000 to $1,500 are available for students who would like to contribute to the video production of various campus activities. Activities include athletics, fine arts, academics, marketing, development/advancement, and administration. Applicants must be full-time students who intend to be a Communication major or minor with an interest in learning and developing skills in broadcast video production/television storytelling. If awarded a Dordt Media Network Video Production Scholarship, a student will:

- Enroll in Intro to Film Studies their freshman year
- Be expected to work a minimum of 105 hours per semester and be available to work nights and some Saturdays
- Shoot and edit video for different stories on and off campus, shoot and edit on-camera interviews, and shoot and edit sports highlights for Defender Athletics.

These scholarships are renewable for an additional three consecutive years provided the recipient maintains a 2.00 cumulative GPA and completes all the requirements of the scholarship as listed above.
